partnerships

Behind every number is someone who matters to God.

A call for help deserves a compassionate response. A survivor needs a place to be heard. Your generosity helps ARMS offer faith-based support rooted in the truth that every person has dignity, value, and a future beyond abuse.

YOUR GENEROSITY AT WORK

SUPPORT WHEN SOMEONE REACHES OUT

ARMS staff responded to 4,500 help calls and inquiries, offering a caring point of connection for those seeking help.

A PLACE TO PURSUE HEALING

Your generosity helps keep Her Journey free, giving survivors access to faith-based abuse recovery and supportive community.

MORE CONNECTIONS TO HOPE

ARMS works with 74 Her Journey partners, including nonprofits, ministries, churches, and other organizations.

The reach is greater than the reported total. The 5,181 reported program attendees exclude Her Journey attendance in seven countries outside the U.S. and additional U.S. attendance, including anonymous groups that do not report.
